

We will stand up, speak out and work together with others for a violence free community

We will support gender equality by promoting women's independence and decision making in the workplace

We will promote non-violent attitudes, language, and behaviour to create a safer community

We will work together to address unequal norms, practices and structures that lead to increased family violence

We will acknowledge and value traditions and cultural differences, and demonstrate respectful relationships with family, friends, work colleagues and other community members